

Forests in the Classrooms

Forest experts engage with students in the greater Itasca County, Minnesota area. They inspire youth to increase the protection, restoration, and sustainable management of the region's forests.

The program integrates the context of the Northern Minnesota forests into core curricular areas and builds student learning about working forests.

For more information

www.mavenperspectives.com or call 218.398.2674

Sponsored in part by:

FEAP Network Partners, Itasca County, and the Minnesota Power Foundation